The Order of the True Rosy Cross is a Religious Order, see Charter and cannot rightfully be classed as Masonic, and I have already written up lectures and Degrees to that end for this. Listed on your charter, but is a religious and not Masonic order. It is derived from ECCLESIAE ROSICRUCIANAE CATHOLICA which you have

Our Charter for Fratres Lucis comes from the Italian Source, and is not, by principle, really a proper Masonic Order. Whilst it is truly an initiatic Order it does not imply that it is Masonic. Not Listed

However it is a legitimate RC ORDER

Notes on our Authorities

Including the authority to modify and transmit them, these are as follows:

ILLUMINIST: Order of the Illuminati; Order of the Martiniste; Order of the Rose Croix of Hiredom; Order of the True Rosy Cross; Order of the Ecclesiae Rosicrucianae Catholicæ; Order of the Holy Royal Arch of Enoch, and the Hidden Church of the Holy Grail.

"Templars, Illuminati + the Fraternitas Saturni

by Peter-R. Koenig

The authentic Order of Illuminati of Adam Weishaupt never found any historical continuity - apart from Johann Joachim Bode in Weimar, until his death in 1793.

Extract from the above:-

"Karl Brodbeck claimed that he had found a ‘Grand Lodge of Atlantis’ in the USA; a branch that had split off in the 1920s. [53] W. Collins proposed a line of succession from John Yarker Junior to Ronald Powell, the "Duc de Palatine" [54]. “

See attached Document on Council of the Three De ‘Sanctuary of the Gnosis’, tenslotte, is de groepering rond Bisschop Richard, Duc de Palatine. Alle charters binnen deze groepering zijn allemaal afkomstig vanuit de oprichtingslijn van John Yarker. De eerste die geïnstalleerd werd in deze lijn was Vicarius Salomonis conservator van de ‘Ancient Universal Pan-Sophic Rite of Masonry’. De lijn werd verder gezet via Hugh de Wilmott-Newman tot Richard Powell, Duc de Palatine. De opvolger van de Palatine was tenslotte bisschop Count George Boyer.

Zij zijn houder van de opvolgingslijn van volgende Ordes:

De Fratres Lucis (Brotherhood of the Illuminati), Order of the Martiniste, LVX (1), Brotherhood of Luxor, Order of De Knights of the Holy Ghost, Order of the Knights of St. John, Order of the Knights of Malta, Order of the Knights of the Holy Sepulchre, Order of the Temple (Apostolic Succession), Order of the Rose Croix of Hiredom, Order of the True Rosy Cross, Order of the Ecclesiae Rosicrucianae Catholicae, Order of the Holy Royal Arch of Enoch, Hidden Church of the Holy Grail, Ancient and Primitive Rite, Rite of Memphis, Rite of Mizraim, Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite en de Swedenborgian Rite of Masonry.

(1) LVX = Volgens Russell Hill zou het LVX een Italiaanse broederschap zijn sterk gelijkend op de Brotherhood of Luxor.

I do not know who put this on the net.
There 9 have underlined are SUSPECT. Therefore unwise to claim.

"Lux" & Brotherhood of Luxor are the same but only advisable to use cypher "Lux"
OTHER AUTHORITIES:

We wish to advise that associated with the Brotherhood of the Illuminati are a number of Orders and Churches dealing with the mystic and occult lore, whose final authority is vested in the person of His Serene Highness Richard, Duc de Palatine, and are as follows:

PRESIDING BISHOP: The Pre-Nicene Catholic Church.
ARCHON: The Brotherhood of the Illuminati.
Vicarius Salamonis: The Pan-Sophic Rite of Freemasonry, embodying the following bodies:

- The Order of the Knights of the Holy Ghost.
- The Order of the Illuminati.
- The Order of the Temple (Temple of the Apostolic Succession)
- The Order of the Knights of St. John.
- The Order of the Knights of Malta.
- The Order of the Knights of the Holy Sepulchre.
- The Hidden Church of the Holy Grail.
- The Hermetic Brotherhood of the Light.
- The Order of the Rose Cross of Hiram.

- The Rite of Memphis (33 Degrees)
- The Rite of Mizraim (90 Degrees)
- The Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite (33 Degrees)
- The Swedish Rite of Masonry
- The Order of the Martinists.

The Ill. Bro. John Yarker, Jn., 33°, 90°, 96° initiated and installed James Harris as the first Vicarius Salamonis, Conservator of the Rite of the Ancient Universal Pan-Sophic Rite of Masonry, who transmitted this power and authority to Ill. Bro. Hugh G. de Willmott Newman and who in turn transmitted this authority to H.S.H. Duc de Palatine, although the same authority was granted to the O.T.O., this line of succession has no connection with the former O.T.O. in any way. Abiding by the promise made by John Yarker to the Masonic Grand Lodge of England, that he would not confer any of these degrees upon individuals other than Masonic Masons, hence only those who are 3° Degree Masons can seek adherence with us.

The Enigma of the Fratres Lucis

by J. C. Ryle, D.D.

Kenneth R. H. McKenzie says of the Fratres Lucis: 'A mystic order, established in Florence in 1498. Its members were very much persecuted by the Inquisition. It is a small but compact body, the members being spread all over the world.' It is useless to repeat that its present members disclaim all connection with the Randolp Foundation, and the multi-quoti of commercial mystics, whether from Quakerstown or Paris.

There is a tradition, prevailing among prominent mystics of the last century, that this Order was founded by a number of refugee Knights of the Templar Order after it had been outwardly destroyed by the King of France in 1313. The tradition states that thirteen members belonging to the Templars, Cathari, Manichaeans and Albigenses, met in the palace of the Duke of Florence to form an order to perpetuate the Adept Tradition.

In spite of the efforts of the Roman office to destroy these Knights in Italy, they failed as there are no records available in the Vatican which could tell the names of the original Knights. Certain Masonic historians have stated that such men as Pasquale, Cagliostro, Swedenborg, St. Martin, Emile Lévi and many other prominent mystics belonged to this Order, but research has failed to establish any connection with the 'Fratres Lucis'.

A. L. Wilke attempts to link the 'Fratres Lucis' with the 'Order of the Golden and Rosy Cross' of 1777 in Germany, this is the first definite role we have of this order after its formation in 1498. There seems to be some vague and inconclusive connection with the history of Freemasonry, the Order of the Temple, the Convention of Wilhelmshöhe and the Rosicrucian Order. Careful study of these accounts has failed to establish any evidence that the Fratres Lucis had any connection with the events which took place in 1777.

According to the documents lodged with the Imperial Library at Petrograd, which are reported to have belonged to a Count Wilkorkski of Warsaw, and were translated by the late Mrs. Isabel Oakley, this order appeared in 1780, being incorporated at Berlin. It became known to the public in Vienna after the death of the Empress Maria Theresa and then it was finally broken up in 1795. There is no conclusive evidence available to show that this (Masonic) Order continued to this day.

This Petrograd manuscript clearly states that the Order is connected with the 'Golden and Rosy Cross' and that candidates must be first Master Masons. These two chains must be ignored, as there is no evidence that the 'Fratres Lucis' of 1780 is a continuation of or had any connection with the Secret Order of 1498. This is clearly evidenced by the 5th Degree when the candidate becomes a 'Secret Initiate Priest'. This false claim is perpetuated by the Randolph Foundation of America. Perhaps this is where the name 'The Royal Order' ('Fratres Lucis and the Golden and Rosy Cross') and 'The Order of the Illuminati' was manufactured.

There is one question which stands out in all this underworld of occult orders: where is the direct connection between the 1498 'Fratres Lucis' and the German Order of 1780? Obviously there is none, the former existed before Freemasonry came into being in 1717 and was the enemy of the sacerdotal caste as is evidenced by the efforts of the Holy Office of Rome to destroy it. On the other hand, the German Order of the 'Fratres Lucis' was formed in 1780 as a quasi-Masonic body claiming connections with the German 'Golden and Rosy Cross' of 1777.

But the original 'Fratres Lucis' of 1498 still exists. It forms a chain in the Adept Tradition: the number of members, that is to say full initiates, is always limited to 13. Their ranks are replenished by selection from the defunct Initiate's lay-pupils and they are scattered all over the globe. It is very rare that any pupil is aware of the existence of any other pupil in his area. This self-same rule also applies to the 'Hidden Rose Cross' and 'Templar Initiates' and is one of the reasons why so little is actually known about them.

An Invitation to attend his series of lectures which will be given throughout the United States of America from the 16th September to 10th December, 1959

You will receive a very warm welcome. Will you please pass this invitation around to your friends.

THE PURPOSE OF THE LECTURE TOUR

In every age and cycle when man enters into the darkness of material existence, one of the MESSENGERS from the Trans-Himalayan White Brotherhood enters the earth region and tries to lead mankind out of the darkness into the Divine Light of Love, Peace and Happiness. Such a VISIT is ever heralded by Their Forerunner who will seek to stop man from rushing headlong to disaster and attempt to restore to man the knowledge of his Divine Nature and the method of attaining Illumination and Interior Communion with the Divine within.

From their secret places and retreats, the Brothers of the Rosy Cross, Brothers of Light, Brothers of the Temple and finally the Brothers of Luxor in the United States have sent forth the clarion call; orders have been given that a FORERUNNER of these Centres of Light was to prepare the way for the Messenger to come in A.D. 1775, who will give the final proof of the Divine Nature of Man. The founders of the Secret Brotherhoods were themselves "ILLUMINATAE," this means that every Brother of Light must be in the position to demonstrate the Divine Science of Illumination, which is the "LOST KEY" to all spiritual endeavour.

This task of demonstrating the Divine Science has been entrusted to His Serene Highness, Richard, Duc de Palatine, who himself is a proven "Illuminati" and an initiate of the secret schools mentioned above.
